

So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.

To Whom It May Concern:

In 2004 I met the Elliotts when they presented their burden for the people of Mongolia. Our church took them on for support the following year. Since that time the Elliotts have been faithful to the work and burden that they first shared.

My heart was touched by their faithfulness during the time of their daughter's sickness and passing. Broken hearted and grieving, they were resolved to faithfully serve God. Those days made a deep impression upon me about his character and resolve to serve God. I do not know if Bro. Elliott knew how great a witness he was during that time, but I am sure many were touched by their faith.

Over the years it has been evident that the Elliotts love and desire to see souls saved and to mature in their walk with the Lord. This was evident in their work to establish a Sunday school curriculum for the children of Mongolia. From children's ministries to church planting the Elliotts have been faithful to the burden that they shared with me 10 years ago. With the recent testimony of his son accepting Jesus as Saviour, it is evident that they have the same care and love for family as they do for the Korean people.

I recommend Bro. Elliot as a faithful, unwavering addition to your missionary family. He has shown through testing and trials that he is committed to the Lord Jesus, getting the gospel message out, and the establishment of New Testament churches.

In His Service,
