Dear Church

We would like to take this opportunity to thank you for your prayers and financial support. We count it an honor to be part of your missionary family. The past two months have had a series of joys and trials. Unfortunately, many of the visitors that came to our Christmas outreach have not begun coming regularly to services. We did have one lady coming regularly, but she has stopped as she could not get past 71 years of Catholic tradition. Please continue to pray for her as she heard the plan of salvation several times and she was under visible conviction. That said, we have seen a few other visitors and continue to see God working in our midst and our community. We do have a couple of special financial needs and prayer requests:

1. We have come to the place where we need a second vehicle. I am looking at a 7-8 passenger minivan or SUV. This would provide a means of transporting people to and from church as well as be used for other uses. It appears that I can get an older vehicle that would be suitable for between $3,500 - $5000 USD. Please be in prayer about this need. Ideally, we would have the vehicle in our possession by the first of May
2. We are still looking for people/churches that would be willing to assist with our church rent cost for a time. Our rent is approximately $1050 + utilities a month (USD)
3. We are praising God for the 3 saved at the youth rally we hosted in February.
4. Please be in prayer for our Easter outreach activities. We will be running digital ads similar to what we ran for Christmas time.
5. We have begun planning several Summer activities and outreaches. Please be in prayer!

On a family note, Eliza graduates in May so we will be back in the States for a short time for her graduation. Then in October, she and Bridge will be married. We will also be back for a couple of weeks for the wedding .

Daniel & Lydia Elliott
